SOURCE: GRAPHIC COMPETITIONS

The Applied Arts Photography Awards is an international competition that celebrates the exceptional talents of photographers from around the globe. Open to professionals, enthusiasts, and students alike, the awards recognize diverse photography styles and categories, offering a platform for participants to showcase their creative vision. Each year, the competition welcomes entries of commissioned, published, unpublished, and personal work created within a specified eligibility period, ensuring fresh and innovative contributions. The awards aim to highlight the artistry and technical excellence in the ever-evolving field of photography.

With a legacy of promoting creativity and excellence, the competition spans a wide array of categories, including portraiture, landscape, conceptual, editorial, and fine art photography. The diverse scope invites photographers to experiment with themes and techniques, pushing the boundaries of conventional imagery. Beyond celebrating traditional forms, the awards embrace modern trends such as digital manipulation and mixed media, reflecting the dynamic nature of contemporary photography. Entrants can compete in single-image categories or submit series to better narrate a compelling visual story.

Winning entries are showcased in the Summer 2025 Photography, Illustration & Design Awards Annual of Applied Arts Magazine, a respected publication in the creative industry. Winners also benefit from prominent exposure through the online Winners Gallery and Awards Archive, providing unparalleled visibility among peers, potential clients, and creative leaders. With its commitment to fostering talent and innovation, the Applied Arts Photography Awards continues to stand as a hallmark of excellence in the global photography community.

Entry fee: Single entry - $40; Series (2-5 images) - $65.

ELIGIBILITY

Open internationally to all forms of commissioned, published, unpublished, and personal work created between February 2024 and February 2025.

PRIZE

Winners will have their work published in the Summer 2025 Photography, Illustration & Design Awards Annual of Applied Arts Magazine, providing valuable exposure within the creative community. Additionally, winning entries will be showcased in the online Winners Gallery and Awards Archive, and winners will receive an official certificate acknowledging their achievement.
