The PRIX VIRGINIA 2024, an esteemed international photography competition for women, is a biennial event that offers a prestigious platform for female photographers worldwide. Organized by the Association SYLVIA S. in Paris, France, this competition celebrates the unique perspectives and artistic expressions of women in the field of photography. Participants are encouraged to submit a cohesive collection of 12 to 18 photographs, showcasing their talent and vision in any subject matter. This inclusive competition welcomes entries from women photographers of all nationalities and ages, fostering a diverse and rich exhibition of photographic art.

This competition stands out for its commitment to promoting the work of women photographers, a group historically underrepresented in the world of photography. By focusing exclusively on female photographers, PRIX VIRGINIA aims to bring attention to the distinctive and varied voices in this field. The submitted photographs, which must not have been previously exhibited in France, are evaluated by a panel of eight prominent cultural figures. This jury, comprising experts in the field of photography and the arts, brings a wealth of experience and insight to the selection process. Their role is crucial in identifying and celebrating photographic works that embody creativity, originality, and technical skill.

The PRIX VIRGINIA 2024 provides an invaluable opportunity for women photographers to gain international exposure and recognition. The winner of the competition is awarded a significant cash prize of 10,000 €, a testament to the value and respect accorded to photographic art. Moreover, the competition’s Selection of the Jury, featuring ten additional photographers, highlights the breadth and depth of talent in the field. This selection further amplifies the visibility of women photographers, showcasing a range of styles and themes. The competition’s commitment to celebrating women’s contributions to photography makes it a vital event in the photography world, offering inspiration and encouragement to female photographers globally.

There is no entry fee.
