The Passepartout Photo Prize is an international photography competition held in the heart of Rome, Italy. Designed to support and promote emerging talents, this award provides a global platform for photographers to showcase their creative vision and artistic excellence. The competition invites submissions from artists who push the boundaries of traditional photography, embracing innovation and experimentation while celebrating the timeless appeal of visual storytelling. Open to participants worldwide, the prize is recognized for its inclusivity and its commitment to fostering diversity in the photographic arts.

A distinctive feature of the Passepartout Photo Prize is its openness to various artistic styles, sizes, and techniques, making it a haven for creativity. Participants can submit works that span across digital photography, film, experimental processes, digital collages, and other mixed media. Even AI-generated images, when part of a photographer's artistic process, are welcomed, reflecting the prize's forward-thinking approach to the evolving art form. By breaking down barriers and encouraging unique perspectives, the prize positions itself as a beacon for contemporary photography enthusiasts.

In addition to monetary rewards, the Passepartout Photo Prize offers an invaluable opportunity for international exposure and career advancement. Winners gain access to exhibitions in Rome's fine art galleries, features in renowned photography magazines, portfolio reviews, and workshops with industry professionals. The competition also leverages its online presence through features on partner websites, social media platforms, and digital galleries. This comprehensive support structure ensures that participants not only receive recognition but also cultivate their networks and develop their artistic journeys on a global scale.

Early Bird Entry Fee: €20 for 3 images (additional images up to 10 total can be submitted at €4 per image); Standard Entry Fee (after January 13, 2025): €25 for 3 images (additional images at €4 per image).

Eligibility
Open to photographers worldwide, with no age limit.

Prize
The prize offers €1,000 in monetary awards annually, including a €500 cash prize for the Passepartout Photo Prize winner. Winners also receive opportunities for international exposure through exhibitions in a fine art gallery in Rome, publication in partner magazines, portfolio reviews, workshops, and features in online galleries and social media platforms.
