1x Photo Awards 2013 is a photo contest by 1x.com, the world's biggest online curated photo gallery.

There's no specific theme or category for the first, second and third prizes and the People's Choice Award, so you can enter any photo subject or motif. If you don't select a category you still compete for the 4 grand prizes.

There is also a total of 20 category awards, 10 different categories, 2 for each category. One category winner in each category is selected by the judge directly and the other winner is selected by the judge from the top 10 highest voted entries in each category. The different categories are:

• Architecture • Conceptual • Documentary • Fine Art Nude • Landscape • Macro • Montage • Nature • Portrait • Street

You can participate in as many categories as you like and there is no limit on how many photos you can submit to each category. You will remain the copyright owner of your photograph(s).

Entry fee is $10/10€ (non-EU/EU) per entry.
