The Sunhak Peace Prize has held an international Motion Graphics Competition to raise global citizens' awareness of the global peace agenda since 2020. In 2021, they are holding a motion graphics contest under the theme of 'Global Solidarity and Cooperation to Prevent and Combat Pandemic Diseases', with the aim of overcoming the pandemic crisis through solidarity across borders.

Entrants are asked to submit 2D/3D motion graphic work, less than 1 minute long.

Individual and team submissions are allowed.

However, only one entry, as individual or as team, is allowed. Submission must not have been submitted to other competitions previously. All work must be in English.

There is no entry fee.

ELIGIBILITY

Open to anyone worldwide, as individual or team.

PRIZE

Total prize money: 9,700 USD. Grand Prize (1 winner): 5,000 USD.
