SOURCE: GRAPHIC COMPETITIONS

The International Children's Painting Competition on the Environment is organized every year by the United Nations Environment Programme (UNEP), the Japan-based Foundation for Global Peace and Environment (FGPE), Bayer and Nikon Corporation. It has been held since 1991 and has received more than 3 million entries from children in over 150 countries.

Theme for this edition is: Food Waste (Save the Planet - Save Food, Wasting Food is Wasting the Planet).

Paintings must be done on A4 or A3 papers. style of painting is free (crayons, coloured pencils, water-colours, etc). Paintings that have been shown or accepted elsewhere will not be accepted in this competition. Participants can submit as many paintings as they like.

The painting(s) will not be returned and will be used to raise environmental awareness through exhibitions, websites, posters, publications etc) and to raise funds to further promote environmental activities by children.

There is no entry fee.
