SOURCE: GRAPHIC COMPETITIONS

Sponsored by Agora Gallery and partnered with the Children's Heart Foundation, the Chelsea International Fine Art Competition is a renowned contemporary art contest that has been juried by prominent museum curators and experts. This international contemporary art event offers awards, visibility, exposure to the New York art market and participation in a group show.

Accepted Media:

• Painting • Drawing • Sculpture • Photography • Digital • Printing • Mixed media

There is no time frame in which the work must have been created. The work must be available during the competition exhibition dates, and must be available for sale. Collaborative work is accepted as long as the collaboration does not exceed two people.

All entries must be in digital format. Each image must be at least 72 dpi and 200 KB. The shortest side of the image must be at least 338 pixels. All entries must be made in JPG format.

There is a 45 USD entry fee for up to 5 images; 5 USD for each additional image.

ELIGIBILITY

Open worldwide to all visual artists above the age of 18.

PRIZE

The prizes, valued at more than 70,000 USD, are awarded to selected artists and designed to help these artists gain valuable exposure and advance their careers in the art world.

The exhibition will take place at Agora Gallery's new street level space located on 25th street at the heart of New York's Chelsea art district.
