SOURCE: GRAPHIC COMPETITIONS

The Passepartout Photo Prize is a prestigious competition designed to support and showcase the talents of photographers from all corners of the globe. Its primary goal is to foster the growth of emerging artists and provide them with valuable opportunities for recognition and exposure on an international scale.

One of the key features that sets this contest apart is its unique collaboration with professionals from the contemporary art and photography industries. The diverse jury, consisting of photographers, editors, gallerists, curators, and educators, ensures a wide range of perspectives in the selection process. This approach encourages inclusivity and embraces diverse artistic expressions.

The contest is open-themed, allowing photographers to explore and present their work without specific thematic constraints. It welcomes photographic works of any artistic style, size, and technique, including digital, film, experimental processes, digital collages, mixed media, and even AI-generated images as part of the photographic process. This openness encourages innovation and originality in contemporary photography.

Entry fee is 25 EUR for 3 images.

ELIGIBILITY

Open to anyone worldwide.

PRIZE

The Passepartout Photo Prize rewards deserving photographers with 1,000 EUR in monetary prizes. Winners also gain the invaluable opportunity to exhibit their works in a distinguished fine art gallery located in the heart of Rome, providing exposure to art enthusiasts and professionals alike. Additionally, their photographs will be published in esteemed magazines affiliated with the contest’s partners, further amplifying their reach and recognition in the art world.
