SOURCE: GRAPHIC COMPETITIONS

The Adobe Design Achievement Awards celebrate student achievement reflecting the powerful convergence of technology and the creative arts. The competition - which showcases individual and group projects created with industry-leading Adobe creative software - honors the most talented and promising student graphic designers, photographers, illustrators, animators, digital filmmakers, game developers and computer artists from the world's top institutions of higher education.

Both individuals and groups may enter up to three unique projects. There are a total of eleven categories divided in three main segments:

• Interactive Experience Media Segment: Web and App Design, Game Art and Design, Installation Design, Digital Publishing

• Video and Motion Meida Segment: Animation, Editing and Post-Production, Motion Graphics

• Traditional Media Segment: Illustration, Packaging, Photography, Print Communications

Submitted projects must have been created after 1 May 2013.

There is no entry fee.

ELIGIBILITY

Contest is open to all individuals age 18 years or older who are students, or faculty in an accredited institution of higher education.

Due to the U.S. export regulations this contest is not open to any resident of the following countries: Cuba, Iran, North Korea, Sudan, and Syria.

PRIZE

Grand Prize Winners will receive Adobe software and a cash prize up to US$5,000. The top three finalists of each category will be announced in September 2014.
