The Andreu World International Design Contest 2025 is a globally recognized annual competition dedicated to fostering innovation in furniture design, specifically targeting sustainable and eco-friendly solutions for seating and tables. Celebrating its 24th edition, the contest attracts submissions from talented designers, architects, students, and industry professionals from all over the world, providing a platform for creativity, technical excellence, and originality. Entrants are tasked with proposing forward-thinking, functional, and aesthetically sophisticated designs that embody Andreu World's deep-rooted commitment to sustainability, quality craftsmanship, and responsible production practices.

Participants are encouraged to draw inspiration from contemporary trends such as circular design principles, sustainable manufacturing, and ergonomics, while aligning with global movements like the New European Bauhaus and the guidelines established by the World Design Organization. The contest aims to highlight and promote designers whose innovative creations reflect an understanding of material efficiency, ecological responsibility, and human-centric design. This approach ensures that entries not only address aesthetic criteria but also respond effectively to contemporary environmental challenges and consumer demands for greener products.

As a renowned platform for emerging and established talent alike, the Andreu World International Design Contest offers participants an exceptional opportunity to gain international recognition, showcase their creative vision, and potentially see their designs move from concept to production. Winning designs often gain exposure through international design fairs, exhibitions, and publications, significantly enhancing the designers' profiles within the global industry. With its emphasis on fostering sustainable innovation and design excellence, the contest continues to set industry benchmarks, influence future trends, and inspire the next generation of design leaders.

There is no entry fee.

ELIGIBILITY

Open worldwide to both design students and professionals, with no age limit.

PRIZE

The contest offers a first prize of €5,000 and a second prize of €2,500, along with three special mentions. Winners gain international recognition, and their designs may be considered for production by Andreu World, providing a significant platform for emerging talent in the design industry.
