The Animayo 2026 International Poster Contest is a global competition created to select the official poster for the 21st edition of the Animayo Festival, an internationally recognized event dedicated to animation, visual effects, video games, and digital art. Organized by Damián Perea Producciones SL, the contest calls on artists, designers, and illustrators from across the world to submit their most creative, original, and unpublished work. Each poster design must capture the innovative, artistic, and imaginative spirit that defines Animayo, while also reflecting the festival's mission of celebrating creativity and technological advancement in the audiovisual arts.

As the official poster competition of the Animayo Festival, this contest offers participants the opportunity to showcase their talent on an international stage. The winning design will become the face of Animayo 2026, appearing in official promotions, digital campaigns, and printed materials, reaching a wide audience of professionals, students, and enthusiasts in the fields of animation, illustration, visual design, and multimedia. The contest not only highlights individual artistic expression but also emphasizes the global and collaborative nature of the creative industries, uniting participants from diverse cultural and artistic backgrounds under one common theme.

Beyond its function as a visual branding exercise, the Animayo 2026 International Poster Contest plays a key role in strengthening the festival's identity and influence within the creative sector. By opening its doors to international participants, the competition reinforces Animayo's reputation as a hub of innovation, talent discovery, and cultural exchange. It invites aspiring and professional artists alike to take part in shaping the visual language of an event that stands at the crossroads of technology, art, and education, ensuring that the winning poster serves as both a promotional tool and a symbol of the festival's commitment to inspiring future generations of creatives.
