The Art Moves Competition 2024 is a renowned international billboard art competition, widely recognized for its engagement with contemporary social and political issues through the medium of visual art. Organized as part of the 17th Festival of Art on Billboards in Torun, Poland, this competition invites artists and students from around the globe to explore and respond to the pressing theme: "To become dependent or independent? To swim with or against the tide?" This theme serves as a metaphor for the ongoing global challenges and dilemmas faced by society today, encouraging participants to reflect on personal and collective agency in an increasingly complex world. By addressing these pertinent questions, the competition aims to foster critical thinking and inspire innovative artistic expressions.

The Art Moves Competition provides a significant platform for emerging and established artists to gain international exposure and contribute to public discourse through their work. Each year, an international jury panel selects the best six artworks from numerous submissions. These selected pieces are then printed and exhibited prominently in the urban space of Torun, transforming the city into an open-air gallery that reaches a diverse audience. This public exhibition not only enhances the visibility of the artists' works but also promotes the accessibility of art to a broader community, aligning with the festival's mission to democratize art and provoke thoughtful engagement among the public.

Participation in the Art Moves Competition is open to all interested individuals, without any entry fee, making it an inclusive opportunity for artists and students worldwide. The competition offers a substantial main award of PLN 4,000 (approximately EUR 918 or USD 981.20) to the creator of the winning entry. By supporting artists financially and providing a prestigious platform for showcasing their work, the Art Moves Competition plays a crucial role in encouraging creative responses to global issues. This initiative not only celebrates artistic talent but also underscores the power of art to influence, reflect, and shape societal values and conversations.

There is no entry fee.
