SOURCE: GRAPHIC COMPETITIONS

Organized by the Australian Graphic Design Association (AGDA) since 1992, the AGDA Design Awards have been Australia's barometer for creative excellence. The awards have grown inexorably across the event's twenty year history, much like the organisation itself.

This year the awards have been given a thorough shakeup, to be more relevant to how we work in today's environment.

There are ten main categories:

• Branding • Graphic Design • Magazine & Newspapers • Books • Packaging • Digital Design • Design Crafts • Spatial Design • Design for Good • Design Effectiveness

All work submitted must have been printed, published or installed between 1st July 2012 and 30 June 2014.

Entry fees: 150 AUD (approx. 140 USD) per entry. AGDA member discount: 100 AUD (approx. 94 USD) per entry.

ELIGIBILITY

Entries are welcome from any country worldwide.

PRIZE

There will be trophies for the major awards, plus the prestigious Pinnacle Award.

This year the Australian Design Biennale will be held in Hobart, Tasmania. A big weekend co-curated by the MONA design team from Thursday 13th to Sunday 16th November 2014.
