CMYK Top 100 New Creatives offers opportunity and recognition for design and advertising graduates by putting their best work in front of influential design professionals in one of the most diverse portfolio competitions available for aspiring artists and creatives.

CMYK's art-school-graduate portfolio competition is open to all U.S. and International graduates, current students in

• Illustration

• Photography

• Graphic Design

• Digital Design

• Advertising

There are no briefs. This is a contest accepting portfolio work that is already produced, and you can upload unlimited pieces of work into any category you wish.

Teachers: If you are an instructor or representative from a school, class or department and wish to enter your students' work directly into the contest in bulk, please email cmykmag@gmail.com (or click "Contact Us" at the footer of CMYK's website).

Entry fee is 15 USD per entry.

Eligibility

Open to anyone worldwide currently attending school, graduated from school (out for two years or less), or self-taught (personal projects).

Prize

Works selected by the jury, as well as those works selected by the CMYK editorial staff, will be published on cmykmag.com in February 2019.

All those published in CMYK's website will receive recognition from your peers and industry, as well as an impressive bullet point for your resume.
