SOURCE: GRAPHIC COMPETITIONS

Copic Award is a competition aimed at providing an opportunity to share the diverse artworks created using Copic products on the web, connect Copic fans around the world to inspire each other and help make their creative experiences more fun.

Your artwork must have been created using Copic products.

The size of artwork should be within L24" x W18"x H12" (L594mm x W420mm x H300mm) with the weight of 11lbs (5kg) or less. For the base material of artwork, fragile materials such as ceramic or glass are prohibited to use.

There are no categories nor specific theme. The Award has been purposely kept this broad to encourage imagination.

Judges for this edition:

• Tsutomu Okada / curator • Junko Koshino / Designer • Arina Tanemura / Japanese manga artist • Rumiko Tezuka / Director & Planning Producer of Tezuka Productions Co., Ltd. • Kei Matsushita / Art director

Applicants must be individual artists, not groups. Entry is limited to artworks which have not already been made public either through another competition or an exhibition (excluding personal exhibition or own social media pages).

Only one piece of artwork may be submitted per person.

There is no entry fee.

ELIGIBILITY

Open to anyone worldwide. There are no restrictions for nationality, age, experience, residence area, etc. All applicants under the age of 13 require the consent of a parent or legal guardian.
