Now in its 19th edition, the Design-A-Sock Contest invites fans and artists around the world to submit unique sock designs, and maybe win the opportunity to see it produced. This is more than just a competition; it's a celebration of creativity, individuality, and the human spirit. This global event encourages creatives from all corners to express themselves and share their wildest ideas.

This exciting event was born out of founder Carrie Atkinson's desire to connect with customers and artists on a more personal level. As the contest has grown over the years, it has become a symbol of hope and inspiration, showing that no matter who you are or where you come from, you have the power to build something beautiful and unique. Thousands of entries pour in each year, from pro artists and college students to families and even art teachers who submit folders full of their students' creations.

If you have an artistic streak and a vision to share, don't miss your chance to participate in this year's Design-A-Sock Contest. Let your imagination run wild, and show the world what you're made of - because when we come together to celebrate our differences and what makes us stand out, we can make something truly special.

Maximum of 5 original entries per person, and maximum 6 colours per design. Any socks produced, are created with the artist's permission first. If they like a design that doesn't win, they'll contact you to see if you are interested before they move forward with production.

There is no entry fee.
