UPDATE: deadline extended to October 24, 2016.

Artists worldwide are invited to take part in a new book, Design Exposed, on design by Steven Heller and Mirko Ilic on the myriad ways designers, illustrators, photographers and art directors have involved the human body in graphic, advertising and typographic design.

This is the first book to undress design and show how the body in all its forms is used realistically, symbolically, aesthetically, yes, and pruriently. The organisers are looking for all printed media, for virtually any commercial or editorial purpose.

Please send JPGs or TIFFs of the works at 11 inches on longest side of image at 300dpi and CMYK. Submitted designs must be published work, no student and personal work.

There is no entry fee.

ELIGIBILITY

Open worldwide to everyone.

PRIZE

Design Exposed will be published by Rizzoli USA for Winter/Spring 2017-18.

They are also looking to organise a traveling exhibition of the original prints to both promote the book, work and designers that are featured in the book.
