SOURCE: GRAPHIC COMPETITIONS

Design by Humans is looking for some heroic Humans - or perhaps Demon Hunters or Monks - to design truly worthy T-shirts inspired by Blizzard's Action RPG masterpiece, Diablo III.

By entering, you're giving yourself the chance to have your work seen by the creative minds at Blizzard Entertainment, the very people behind some of the greatest video game titles of the last 20 years. Not to mention reviewed by Design By Humans and it's global community.

Together, we're sending you on a quest: design a t-shirt using characters from Diablo III, and then pit them against each other in a massive art contest for a combined $12,500 in cash and additional prizes. Your quest is somewhat less dangerous than defeating the Prime Evils. No need to fight Mephisto – but feel free to incorporate him into your design.

While working on your entry, you are invited to document your work with a time lapse or work in progress video to share the story of your submission.

Once submissions are closed, all registered users will get 5 gold coins to place on the designs that they think should be the Grand Prize Winners.

There is no entry fee.

ELIGIBILITY

This contest is open worldwide to natural persons who are 18 years of age or older at the time of entry.
