Promoting educational campaigns in favour of Human Rights using design, art and other cultural manifestations, the association Escucha mi Voz is organising its Poster Contest 2019.

This year's theme is paying special attention to the right to aim number 11 Sustainable Development Goals to be achieved in the year 2030. Specifically, number 11 refers to Sustainable Cities and Communities. Topic name is: I, Metropoli.

- Dignified housing • Access to water • Caring for the environment in the city • Urban transport • Urban poverty • Public spaces • Green areas within the city • Mobility (including bicycle use)

Format requirements: 2953 x 4134 pixels (50 x 70 cm) at 150 dpi in RGB, vertical format. Posters must be original but not necessarily unpublished. Each participant will be able to submit up to 10 posters.

Posters must be original but not necessarily unpublished. Each author is responsible for his work and at all times retains the right to ownership of his work.

There is no entry fee.

ELIGIBILITY

Open worldwide to all designers, graphic and visual artists. No age limit.

PRIZE

The best 30 to 50 posters will be selected by an international jury and will be part of traveling exhibitions in Mexico (and probably in Latin American and North American countries as well).

Moreover, if your poster is selected you will have a free collection of postcards or print edition, only ask for cover the shipment and your participation certificate.

The names of the selected designers will be announced during the month of September 2019. The exhibitions will start in October 2019.
