SOURCE: GRAPHIC COMPETITIONS

Hosted and organised by Unarthodox Gallery, F. The Art World is an international art competition where fine artists, photographers, digital artists, graphic designers, and sculptors compete for a chance to be exhibited in New York City for an entire week.

Submit work that depicts a rebellious view of tradition, customs, religion and politics. Share your visual expression and subjective interpretation. Artwork will not be judged on the technique and professional skill, but on the interpretation and depth of the subject matter.

Artwork in the following disciplines is accepted:

• Fine Art /Mixed Media • Photography • Sculpture • Digital Arts • Graphic Design

Entries must be in JPEG format, no smaller than 1920 pixels on the longest side, and 5 MB maximum. All sculptures submissions should be photographed.

Entry fee is 32 USD for up to four images.

ELIGIBILITY

Open worldwide to amateur and professional artists.

PRIZE

A winner in each category above will get the opportunity to exhibit their work in the group art show at the Unarthodox Gallery in Chelsea, New York City for an entire week in May 2017. All other participants' artwork will be displayed in a large projection during the opening ceremony.

All winners will also be announced in the Unarthodox social media accounts, newsletter and both local and international media channels.
