SOURCE: GRAPHIC COMPETITIONS

Organised by the Foam Magazine, the Foam Talent Call is one of the photographic industry's most prestigious contests for young photographers all over the world. It is a career building platform, helping to launch aspiring talents into the international photography industry and giving them international acclaim and recognition.

Participants are invited to submit two series of work. The series should include 8—10 images per project, but no more than 20 images in total and should be submitted with project descriptions and a CV.

The editorial board will choose the portfolios according to the creative vision and concept of the series presented. The selection procedure will take place between March and June 2015.

Entry fee of 35 Euro (approx. 39 USD).

ELIGIBILITY

Open to young photographers between 18 and 35 years old from all over the world.

PRIZE

The Foam Talents are exhibited internationally. In 2014 the Foam Talent exhibition travelled to Amsterdam, Paris and Dubai.

The exhibitions were accompanied by symposiums, masterclasses and events, attracting both professionals from the field of photography and photography enthusiasts.
