

Foam Talent Call 2016 Photography Competition

Category: Photography

Deadline: March 20, 2016

Website: graphiccompetitions.com

Organised by the Foam Magazine, the Foam Talent Call is one of the photographic industry's most prestigious contests for young photographers all over the world. It is a career building platform, helping to launch aspiring talents into the international photography industry and giving them international acclaim and recognition.

This year marks the 10th anniversary of the award, which over the past decade has identified and launched hundreds of emerging photographers from around the world.

Participants are invited to submit two series of work. The series should include 8-10 images per project, but no more than 20 images in total and should be submitted with project descriptions and a CV.

The editorial board will choose the portfolios according to the creative vision and concept of the series presented. The selection procedure will take place between March and June 2016.

There is an entry fee of 35 Euro (approx. 38 USD).

Eligibility

Open to young photographers between 18 and 35 years old from all over the world.

Prize

The selected Foam Talents will be featured in a special issue of Foam Magazine, participate in a large outdoor exhibition at Unseen Photo Fair in Amsterdam and in the Foam Talent Exhibition (Paris, London and Brussels) and will gain international exposure and meet an extensive network of professionals and collectors.
