Website: graphiccompetitions.com

The Illustrated Album International Contest offers a vibrant platform for creative writers and illustrators worldwide, fostering the development of innovative narrative and visual concepts in the Spanish language. Organized by the Biblioteca Insular de Gran Canaria, this prestigious competition is dedicated to the creation of picture books that seamlessly blend text and images or exclusively feature images. With a legacy rooted in the rich tradition of Hispanic literature, this contest represents a remarkable opportunity for both emerging and seasoned artists to showcase their talents.

Participants in this renowned contest must be aged 18 and above, and they are encouraged to submit their original, previously unpublished works that resonate with the theme of narrative and visual ingenuity. The competition welcomes entrants from diverse backgrounds, transcending geographical boundaries, and fostering a global community of creative storytellers. While embracing this artistic diversity, the contest ensures a level playing field for all, promoting the use of the Spanish language as the conduit for imaginative expression.

The contest is highly regarded in Hispanic literature, and it has a rich history of collaboration with various publishers. Not only does it offer a substantial monetary prize of €11,000 to the deserving winner (including a €2,000 Copyright advance), but it also provides an exclusive opportunity for the winning album to be published by Editorial Everest, a prominent children's publisher in Spain. With a history of collaboration with renowned publishers and a commitment to nurturing creative excellence, this competition plays a pivotal role in celebrating and preserving the beauty of storytelling through captivating visuals and compelling narratives.

There is no entry fee.

Eligibility

Open to writers and illustrators of legal age, regardless of their place of origin or residence.

Prize

The winner of the contest will receive a prize of €11,000, including a €2,000 Copyright advance. If there are multiple authors, the prize will be equally divided among them. The winning album will be published by Editorial Everest, a prominent children's publisher in Spain.
