Following a very successful 1st year - the 2nd Indigo Award is now open for submissions. Enter today and show your best designs to the best of the best in Graphic Design, Digital Design, UI/UX and Games Design. Check out their broad list of subcategories and choose the ones that fit you the most. The competition is open to individual designers, small and large design teams, studios, and students from around the world.

You are invited to join their jury of industry titans and cutting-edge designers for a competition designed to push boundaries and challenge convention. Submissions are open for both conceptual and already implemented designs. Young designers who graduated within the last five years are particularly encouraged to apply.

The premier Indigo Design Award Ceremony was held in Tokyo in 2018, where main winners were announced and awarded with Indigo trophies. Some of the winners include such big agencies as Loyalkaspar for SYFY Rebrand, Big Monocle for â€œDesigning the Biggest Protest in US Historyâ€, David Schwen for â€œSpread the Loveâ€ and others. The exemplary international jury panel includes journalists, respected experts and designers such as Pip Jamieson (Founder of The Dots), Nina Geometrieva (Product Designer at Google), Tracy Osborn (Hello Web Design author), Jon Noorlander (Method Studios), Tracy Chou (Entrepreneur, former engineer at Pinterest) and many others. They meticulously judge each entry, paying close attention to Indigoâ€™s criteria, which includes innovation, design and the use of technology.

Submit your work by the Early Bird Deadline of September 30, 2018, and get 15% off your entry fee. The final deadline is January 30, 2019. Please check full deadline schedule on Indigo Award homepage.
