SOURCE: GRAPHIC COMPETITIONS

The Museum of Typography in Chania, Crete, with great pleasure invites professionals, students and amateurs of graphic and visual arts, but also people with innovative ideas that can turn them into a poster, to participate in their International Poster Contest about typography.

Theme of the year is: "Typography & Printing: past, present and future".

The poster should be created with the view of being used in various applications of the Museum (publication cover, poster, postal card, banner, etc). The dimensions must be 50×70 cm. PDF, CMYK, images at 200 ppi and not exceed 25 Mb.

Selection criteria for the winning creations will be the originality and the transmission directness of the message.

There is no entry fee.

ELIGIBILITY

Open to anyone worldwide.
