SOURCE: GRAPHIC COMPETITIONS

Médicos del Mundo presents the Luis Valtueña International Humanitarian Photography Award, now in its 24th consecutive year, to denounce the situation of millions of people in the World.

The submitted images must narrate a story related to one of these topics: natural disasters, humanitarian action, international cooperation, social exclusion, violation of human rights, armed conflicts, vulnerable groups, refugee and / or migrant populations.

Each entrant must submit a series of between 5 (minimum) and 10 (maximum) photographs. The photographs may be in black and white or colour. At least 50% of the images must have been made between 2019 and 2020.

There is no entry fee.

ELIGIBILITY

Open worldwide to 18 years or older amateur and professional photographers.

PRIZE

The winner will receive a project grant of 6,000 EUR (approx. 7,070 USD), a professional camera Leica Q2 and a set of 10 photobooks published by La Fábrica.
