The Luxembourg Art Prize aims to reveal and promote talented artists who have yet to establish a profile on the contemporary international scene. Its function is to discover artists, and it is open to any artist, amateur or professional, with no limits on age, nationality or place of residence.

The Prize is aimed at artists working in one or more of the following media:

• Drawing • Printing • Installation • Painting • Performance • Photography • Digital Art • Sculpture • Sound Art • Video • Mixed media • Decorative Art (textiles and material, glass, wood, metal, ceramics, mosaic, paper, etc.)

The Luxembourg Art Prize is a unique opportunity to enter the international professional art circuit and to have your work seen by major private and institutional art collectors. You will have the chance to be supported and personally advised by Hervé Lancelin.

Entry fee is 55 EUR (approx. 60 USD).

ELIGIBILITY

Open to any artist, amateur or professional, with no limits on age, nationality or place of residence.

PRIZE

The winner of the Prize in 2019 will receive an award of 50,000 EUR (approx. 55,160 USD) to fund the production of further work and an individual exhibition in a prestigious gallery.

All the finalist artists' expenses are paid by the organisation during the group exhibition (transport for the works of art, air and train tickets and full-board accommodation in a four-star hotel). This also applies to the expenses of one other person of their choice who can accompany them to the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg.
