The Luxembourg Art Prize is an annual international artistic prize organized by the Pinacothèque, a private museum located in the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg. Every year the Prize aims to discover talents, amateur or professional, regardless of age and nationality.

Since it was created in 2015, the Luxembourg Art Prize aims to launch or boost the careers of artists at the international level by giving them a sound reference to add to their curriculum vitae.

The Prize is aimed at artists working in one or more of the following media: drawing, printing, installation, painting, photography, sculpture, mixed media, decorative art (textiles and material, glass, wood, metal, ceramics, mosaic, paper or other techniques).

Entry fee is 55 EUR/79 USD.

ELIGIBILITY

Open to any artist, amateur or professional, with no limits on age, nationality or place of residence.

PRIZE

Each year, 24 finalists are selected by the museum and 3 laureates are designated by an independent jury. The prize money is broken down as follows: 50,000 EUR for 1st place, 20,000 EUR for 2nd place, and 10,000 EUR for 3rd place. The laureates are free to use this money however they please.
