SOURCE: GRAPHIC COMPETITIONS

That's a Mole! is an international illustration contest, now in its 3rd edition, where participants are asked to create an illustration, a graphic interpretation or a decorative pattern in the shape of the most important icon of the city of Turin (Italy): the Mole Antonelliana monument.

That's a Mole! aims to be successful in giving visibility and enhancing the participants' work, while also reinforcing and promoting the attention to culture, community and tourism in the area.

Technique is free, and each participant may submit up to three proposals. Artwork can be submitted by individuals and/or groups, and the final proposal must fit within the 17x40 cm template.

Please note: Mole is also the English word for Talpa Europeæa; but here it stands just for Mole Antonelliana, monument symbol of the city of Turin (Italy). The topic of the proposal is free and hasn't to deal with the animal!

There is no entry fee.

ELIGIBILITY

Open to everyone worldwide without age limits.

PRIZE

The winning artwork will receive 1,000 Euro (approx. 1.100 USD).

Moreover, 26 other works, together with the winner, will be exhibited in front of the Mole Antonelliana (Torino, Italy).
