The 13th Montreal International Black Film Festival (MIBFF), taking place from September 27 to October 1, 2017, is proud to launch the 4th edition of its International Poster Contest.

From the Caribbean to the Indian Ocean, Africa to North America, via Europe and South America, MIBFF wants to share its most striking black cinematic discoveries while engaging in a wider cultural, social and socio-economic debate. MIBFF has become today's largest black film festival in Canada.

It is a dynamic, bold and innovative festival that fosters the development of the independent film industry and which offers a new and refreshing look on a growing, rich and original film industry.

Format required for pre-selection: low resolution JPG (2-3 MB). Each participant can submit up to three proposals. The text and poster must be vector-based and editable. File types: ai, eps , psd and indd.

There is no entry fee.

ELIGIBILITY

Open worldwide to graphic designer, artist, illustrator, poster designer or photographer who loves film and diversity.

PRIZE

The best poster will be awarded with a prize of 500 CAD (approx. 375 USD).

Moreover, the winning poster will be featured in all communications and publicity for MIBFF's 13th edition. It will be used for all media and press purposes, including promotional materials, interviews, press conferences, etc.
