Established as part of the brand’s 100th-anniversary celebration, Nikon has launched its first-ever scholarship to support the next generation of visual content creators.

You must meet all of the following criteria to be eligible to receive the Nikon Storytellers Scholarship:

• Be an undergraduate or graduate student at an accredited, non-profit college/university or vocational/technical school in the United States or Canada • Complete your freshman year of college or academic equivalent before Fall 2018 • Be majoring in visual arts, fine arts, journalism, film, photography, or multimedia/content creation • Minimum cumulative 2.5 grade point average at time of application • Provide a recommendation from a professor, teacher or academic advisor

If you are selected as a semi-finalist, you will be asked to provide a photo portfolio or video submission, description of photo/video submission and copy of the academic transcript.

There is no entry fee.

ELIGIBILITY

Open to undergraduate and graduate students at an accredited, non-profit college/university or vocational/technical school in the United States or Canada pursuing degrees in visual arts, fine arts, journalism, film, photography and multimedia/content creation who will have completed their freshman year of college or academic equivalent before Fall 2018.

PRIZE

Eligible students can apply to be one of ten individuals awarded an academic scholarship of 10,000 USD, to help foster their growth and pursue careers in creative fields.

Semi-finalists will be invited to submit a portfolio of images or brief video for consideration by a selection committee who will determine the ten winning applicants. Scholarships will be awarded for use in the 2018-2019 academic school year.
