SOURCE: GRAPHIC COMPETITIONS

The Beijing Organising Committee has launched a global design competition for the mascots of the 2022 Olympic and Paralympic Winter Games.

Mascots are among the most memorable symbols of the Olympic Games and Paralympic Games. Beijing 2022 looks forward to receiving creative design proposals from across the globe that embody Olympic and Paralympic values, affirm the vision of the 2022 Games, and reflect Chinese culture.

Entries can be submitted from October 20, 2018 to October 31, 2018, either in person or by mail.

Address: Mascots Design Request Office, Beijing 2022 No. 68, Shijingshan Road, Shijingshan District, Beijing, PRC

There is no entry fee.

ELIGIBILITY

Open to anyone worldwide.

PRIZE

The ten finalists will receive a cash prize of 10,000 Yuan (approx. 1,450 USD). Each of the top three designs will receive 30,000 Yuan (approx. 4,360 USD).

Winning proposals for the design of the Beijing 2022 Olympic Mascot and Beijing 2022 Paralympic Mascot will each receive a prize of 100,000 Yuan (approx. 14,540 USD).
