Printify is challenging you to create 7 unique Halloween-themed designs in 7 days. Each day, you will get a new task, where you get to show us how frighteningly creative you can get. At the end of the week, the most upvoted design owner will win 1000 USD.

The challenge will take place from October 11th until October 17th.

Participants keep 100% ownership rights for all designs submitted to the contest. Printify and other contestants do not have any ownership or rights to use your submission.

Your designs will be reviewed by industry experts and fellow design professionals. This is your chance to get spooktacular prizes, test your skills in graphic design, or even start your own print-on-demand business.

There is no entry fee.
