RM Istituto Moda e Design is celebrating its first birthday by offering 100 scholarships for its International Masters in Design and Fashion program. It has allocated 500.000 EUR in scholarships for the Masters that start in February and November 2019 in Milan, Italy.

The programs last 10 months and have only 20 students per class. The program is composed of 10 modules, each organized and managed in collaboration with leading international advertising and photography agencies, important product, visual design and architecture studios, and exclusive fashion brands. This enables students to try their hand with concrete cases, guided by professionals.

If you are interested in Advertising, Architecture, Photography, and Visual Design, you have to apply until March 15, 2019, for the Masters starting in November 2019.

The Scholarships will be granted to candidates based on the evaluation of their dossiers by the Course leader and Lecturers of each Master.
