

GRAPHIC DESIGN

SAN SEBASTIAN FESTIVAL 2015 POSTER COMPETITION

DEADLINE

02 MAR 2015

ENTRIES CLOSED

POSTED	ENTRY FEE	ONLINE
3 Feb 2015	SEE ARTICLE DETAILS	VISIT ORGANIZER

DETAILS / KEEP FOR REFERENCE

SOURCE: GRAPHIC COMPETITIONS

The San Sebastian Festival calls its forth online competition for posters to provide the official image of its 63rd edition. The Festival seeks to encourage creativity and participation and to foster greater reach of the event.

There are six categories:

• Official • New Directors • Zabaltegi • Horizontes Latinos • Pearls • Culinary Zinema

Participants are free to submit posters for as many categories as they wish. They can also submit as many posters as they wish for each category.

Posters must be original and unpublished and must not have been submitted for other competitions. Posters must be submitted in vertical JPG format measuring a minimum of 1361 x 1927 and a maximum of 2825 x 4000 pixels. They must not weigh more than 8Mb.

There is no entry fee.

ELIGIBILITY

The competition is open to all designers worldwide.

PRIZE

A jury will choose the winner and up to four finalists in each category and prizes will be drawn among voters of the winning proposals.

The winner of the Official category will receive a prize of 3,000 Euro (approx. 3,400 USD), for all the other categories instead winners will receive 1,000 Euro (approx. 1,100 USD).

Winners will be publicly announced at a press conference called by the San Sebastian Festival on May 8.