SOURCE: GRAPHIC COMPETITIONS

Tallenge, an online talent platform where users can showcase their skills and compete, is organising an international Student Photography Contest.

Tallenge provides participants with various tools, mechanisms and advice to promote their entry on the internet using a combination of different media and techniques. This includes providing them with a channel to broadcast their entry using email services, badges, embeds and social media services such as Facebook, Twitter, LinkedIn, Pinterest, blogs etc.

There is no set theme, and you may enter as many times as you wish.

Image format accepted: .jpg; .png; .gif. Maximum file size of 10 MB.

There is no entry fee.

ELIGIBILITY

Tallenge Student Photography Contest is open to students of any recognised university not below the age of majority. There are no geographic limitations or restrictions on participants.

PRIZE

Apart from the immense satisfaction of competing against students from around the globe, and winning a worldwide contest, the winner receives also $250 prize money from Tallenge along with press mentions in online publications, peer recognition and other opportunities.
