Tezuka Manga Contest is a manga award for new artists established by "Shonen Jump" by Shueisha publisher since 1971 with the aim of finding new talents. The Prize is named after Osamu Tezuka who was a pioneer in manga history after the war. Many professional manga artists who still work this day, were found through this award.

The contest is held twice a year, and this time will be the 100th anniversary, looking for wonderful talents around the world.

You may submit manga in any genre. It must be a full story. Monochrome only. Up to 55 pages.

There is no entry fee.

ELIGIBILITY

Open to manga artists from around the world.

PRIZE

The 1st prize winner will receive 2 million Yen (approx . 18,585 USD) + published on "Weekly Shonen Jump" (paper or electronic) + invited to the award ceremony in Tokyo.
