

The Baron Prize 2022

Category: Multiple Disciplines

Deadline: March 30, 2022

Website: graphiccompetitions.com

Now in its fourth edition, The Baron Prize is a biannual award, which recognises artists, photographers and filmmakers who have created projects investigating gender, sex, sexuality and identity politics.

Submissions can be previously published or exhibited work. You should also submit an artist statement in the application, contextualising the work, introducing your concept and lines of investigation. The artist statement should unpack how the construction of the project is aligned with your concept. Maximum 1000 words.

The fourth edition of the Baron Prize is judged by Richard Kern, Yushi Li, Ethan James Green, Ted Stansfield.

Entry fee is 20 GBP (approx. 27 USD).

Eligibility

Open to artists, filmmakers, photographers working in any medium and from anywhere in the world, over the age of 18.

Prize

The winner will be announced in June 2022 and the winners' prize is 1000 GBP and a 1000 GBP gift certificate to spend at Baron Books.
