The London Illustration Fair is an annual, artist-led illustration, print and graphic design fair, bringing artists and buyers together in a unique environment. The fair offers the chance for illustration lovers to come face to face with their favourite artists and discover amazing new artwork from emerging illustrators.

If you are looking to take part in The London Illustration Fair you will need to supply us with a single sided A4 pdf with the following information:

• Your name, website, email and contact phone number • 3 images of your work detailing its title, price, size and medium • Your desired stand/stall size & commission rate • Your second choice of stand size • No more than 100 words on your artwork and your artistic practice • No more than 100 words on your plans for the illustration fair, including any live or participatory elements you are planning for the event Your Application pdf will help the judging panel make their final decision so please make your application as clear as possible. Applications must be a single side A4 pdf only. If you are a collective or looking to share a stand you may provide a two-page pdf.

Send your application to info@thelondonillustrationfair.co.uk with the subject heading 'APPLICATION2018'.

Applying artists are encouraged to offer a live hands-on element to their stand. This interaction helps to create a positive and creative environment throughout the event by encouraging public engagement. Past activities have included creative workshops, live drawing, live printing, personalised gift cards, raffles etc.

The venue is the Bargehouse on London's Southbank. The space is a 4-storey raw warehouse within Oxo Tower Wharf that showcases a variety of exhibitions and creative events throughout the year. For The London Illustration Fair 2018 it will provide a unique, exciting and versatile backdrop to the events artwork, workshops and activities, with over 10,000sq ft of floor space to play.

ELIGIBILITY

Open to illustrators, graphic designers and creative crafts people looking to exhibit and sell their work to an audience of art buyers, gallery owners, creative agencies and everyone in-between.

There is also the option of a table space alongside the regular stands. This is to encourage a wider selection of craftspeople such as jewellery designers, fashion print designers, zine makers & publishers as well as illustrators at the start of their career.
