The 2023 China International Poster Biennial (CIPB) is set to be a landmark event in the world of graphic design, marking its 11th edition. Taking place in Hangzhou, China in November 2023, this event began its journey by the iconic West Lake in 2003. Over the years, CIPB has not only fortified its reputation as China's premier poster design competition but has also carved a niche for itself on the global stage, making it a must-attend for design enthusiasts.

Drawing participants and attendees from all corners of the globe, the CIPB has consistently served as a melting pot for the international graphic design community. It's an unparalleled platform where contemporary concepts merge with aesthetic standards, reflecting the pulse of current ideological trends. With its commitment to excellence, the event has been instrumental in documenting the visual history of various eras, presenting posters that resonate with societal, cultural, and environmental themes of their time.

Hosted by esteemed institutions, the China Academy of Art (CAA) and the Zhejiang Artists Association (ZAA), the 2023 CIPB promises to be more than just a competition. With its emphasis on innovation, diversification, and cultural communication, it stands as a beacon for the future of graphic design. As the event positions itself at the forefront of design evolution, it continues to attract the crème de la crème of the design world, ensuring its prominence in online searches for leading international design events.

There is no entry fee.
