3x3 International Illustration Awards Show 2017

Category: Illustration
Deadline: March 31, 2017

Website: graphiccompetitions.com

3x3 magazine is entering its fourteenth year judging the world's best contemporary illustration. Their mission is to spotlight the best contemporary international artists they can find and encourage a new focus on the use of illustration by the global editorial, advertising and design communities.

There are three main categories:

• Professional Show • Picture Book Show • Student Show

The goal is to bring together artists from all countries to share their creative output in an impartial judging scenario.

All judging is done digitally by a set of unbiased judges; if a particular judge has either commissioned the work or has been the illustrator they are not allowed to vote on their entry.

A Series entry must have a central consistent theme, i.e. editorial article, sequential comic, book. All series will be judged as a whole. There is no limit to how many pieces you may enter, and you can enter a piece in multiple categories.

Professional Show and Picture Book Show fees are 35 USD for a Single Entry and 60 USD for a Series (three to five images). Student Show fees are 15 USD for a Single Entry and 35 USD for a Series.

After March 24th there will be a 10 USD late fee to each entry.

Eligibility

Open to all illustrators, art directors, graphic designers, educators, students, recent graduates, editors, publishers in all countries for commissioned and non-commissioned work produced and/or published during the calendar year 2016.
