7th "We Want Jazz" Poster Competition, organized by the EUROJAZZ Foundation in Warsaw, Poland, calls upon artists from around the globe to submit original poster designs inspired by the evocative theme "In Jazz We Hope." Participants are encouraged to visually interpret jazz not just as a genre of music but as a universal symbol of hope, dialogue, creativity, and mutual understanding. This prestigious art contest provides a unique platform for designers, illustrators, and visual artists to express their creative talent, contributing to the global appreciation of jazz culture.

Each year, this celebrated international competition attracts hundreds of entries, showcasing diverse artistic approaches ranging from contemporary graphic design to illustrative artworks rich in cultural symbolism. The competition emphasizes creativity, originality, and the effective visual representation of jazz as a powerful tool for bridging cultural divides. Selected posters from finalists and award-winning designs are prominently exhibited both online and at significant jazz festivals and cultural events, significantly boosting visibility and recognition for emerging and established artists alike.

Participation in the "We Want Jazz" competition offers artists the chance to gain international exposure while supporting the cultural and artistic mission of the EUROJAZZ Foundation. The foundation is dedicated to preserving and promoting jazz traditions and contemporary jazz expressions through innovative visual storytelling. By contributing to this dynamic contest, artists become active ambassadors of jazz culture, influencing public perceptions and fostering a greater appreciation for jazz music and its role in nurturing hope, freedom, and artistic dialogue worldwide.
