Aesthetica Art Prize 2024

Category: Multiple Disciplines
Deadline: September 30, 2024
Website: graphiccompetitions.com

The Aesthetica Art Prize 2024, hosted by Aesthetica Magazine, stands as a prominent international competition that celebrates the vibrancy and diversity of contemporary art. It opens its doors to artists from all over the globe, welcoming a plethora of media such as painting, drawing, sculpture, video, installation, photography, and digital art. This prize is not only a competition but a showcase, highlighting groundbreaking works that push the boundaries of artistic expression and creativity.

In its mission to nurture and support the artistic community, the Aesthetica Art Prize provides an exceptional platform for both emerging and established artists to gain visibility in the international art scene. The competition is recognized for its role in promoting artists at various stages of their careers, offering them the opportunity to exhibit their work at a major public gallery. The prize also facilitates further engagement with the art world through extensive media coverage and promotional opportunities, which are invaluable for artists seeking to expand their professional networks and audience reach.

With a commitment to artistic innovation and a keen eye on the pulse of contemporary cultural developments, the Aesthetica Art Prize encourages submissions that reflect upon the complex and ever-changing global landscape. The prize aims to foster a dialogue among cultures and communities through art, making it a significant event for cultural exchange and mutual understanding. It is this ethos that positions the Aesthetica Art Prize as a leading light in the celebration of contemporary art, offering a critical platform for artistic discourse and discovery.

Regular entry fees are £25 until 31 August 2024, after which late entry fees of £35 apply until the deadline.

Eligibility

Open to all artists worldwide, working at any stage of their career, including students.

Prize

The Main Prize winner of the Aesthetica Art Prize 2024 will receive £10,000, substantial editorial coverage in Aesthetica Magazine, an online profile, and participation in a group exhibition at a major public gallery. Additionally, the winner receives a complimentary pass to the Future Now Symposium. There's also an Emerging Artist Prize, which includes £1,000, a £250 voucher for art supplies, and similar exhibition and promotional opportunities as the main prize. All shortlisted artists will be featured in a group exhibition and receive profiles in the magazine and online, along with various other support and exposure opportunities.