The Andreu World International Design Contest 2023 is a prestigious platform that beckons design enthusiasts, both students and professionals, from across the globe to showcase their creative prowess. Now in its 22nd year, this renowned competition, organized by Andreu World, offers a unique opportunity to craft innovative and sustainable seat or table designs under the compelling theme, "Beyond the Plastic Wave." This theme underscores the contest's commitment to driving positive change by encouraging designs that contribute to the reduction of plastic waste, embodying the principles of the circular economy.

With a rich history dating back to its inception in 2001, the Andreu World International Design Contest has established itself as one of the world's longest-standing competitions in the realm of seat and table design. Over the years, it has garnered participation from tens of thousands of creative minds hailing from more than a hundred countries, solidifying its reputation as a global showcase for emerging design talent. The contest's mission is to support and promote new frontiers in design, emphasizing attention to detail, excellence, and the pursuit of good design as guiding principles for its participants.

In alignment with its commitment to sustainable design, the contest assesses the use of eco-friendly and innovative materials, such as wood, recycled thermopolymers, BIO plastics, and more. Entrants are encouraged to consider the entire lifecycle of their designs, ensuring durability, reparability, and a minimal environmental footprint. Furthermore, the contest places significance on the social and cultural impact of designs, aiming to enhance universal accessibility, cultural enrichment, and overall well-being through creative solutions. The Andreu World International Design Contest 2023 stands as a beacon for those passionate about design with a purpose, offering a platform to make a positive impact on the world through sustainable and visionary creations.
