Anima 2024, the Brussels Animation Film Festival, has opened the call for entries to its selection programmes for the 43rd edition of the festival.

The Festival offers an official selection with national and international competition of short and feature films, as well as an information section (retrospectives, thematic programmes...). Anima considers all films completed after June 2022 and belonging to the following categories as eligible for competition:

• Feature Films
• Feature Films for a Young Audience
• International Professional Short Films
• International Student Films
• International Short Films for a Young Audience
• National Short Films

The 43rd edition of the Brussels Animation Film Festival will take place 23 February – 03 March, 2024. In addition to attracting professionals from all over the world, Anima is also a popular and family festival that welcomes more than 40,000 festival-goers every year.

There is no entry fee.

Eligibility

Open to anyone worldwide.

Prize

The winners in the main competition categories will receive, in addition to the cash prizes, an Anima trophy.
