

Anthology Photography Competition

Category: Photography

Deadline: November 30, 2025

Website: graphiccompetitions.com

The Anthology Photography Competition is an international photography contest hosted by Anthology Magazine, inviting photographers globally to submit exceptional standalone images interpreting the theme "The World As You See It." Celebrating photographic excellence across diverse styles including street photography, landscapes, wildlife, macro, lifestyle, architectural, still life, and creatively manipulated forms such as abstract, panoramic, stitched, and composite photography, this competition highlights unique visual narratives. Judges assess each entry based on quality, creativity, originality, and emotional or visual impact, placing special emphasis on innovative interpretations of the theme.

This competition is open to photographers of all nationalities and skill levels, residing anywhere in the world, with no age limit and no restrictions on the number of submissions per individual. Photographers are encouraged, though not required, to familiarize themselves with Anthology Magazine's visual style by reviewing or purchasing editions available through their online shop, ensuring alignment with the publication's high standards and artistic direction.

The winner will receive a generous cash prize of €500, along with the prestigious opportunity to have their winning image prominently featured in a future issue of Anthology Magazine. This award not only provides financial recognition but also significant exposure, enhancing the photographer's professional profile and visibility within the global photography community.

Entry fee: €18 EUR.

Eligibility

Open worldwide to all photographers.

Prize

The winner will receive a €500 cash prize and editorial coverage in a future issue of Anthology Magazine, providing both financial reward and a valuable opportunity for international exposure.
