Future London Academy's third Design Thinking & Innovation Week will be held March 16-20 in London. The event features a unique program for creative entrepreneurs, designers and business owners, introducing attendees to London's most innovative businesses & uncovering the latest approaches to design thinking and innovation.

The five-day event will consist of lectures, roundtables and visits to the top companies who adopted the human-centered approach, where attendees will meet the teams behind their latest research and innovation. They will also explore the latest trends and discoveries in virtual reality, artificial intelligence, sustainability and the future of technologies.

All lectures and workshops will take place in the actual agencies giving participants a better context of the topic. Attendees will learn about the latest approach to creativity, product management and business management - and have the opportunity to ask any questions in an informal atmosphere.

Places on the course are limited to a maximum of 27 people.
