The Design Management Institute is proud to announce the 2016 dmi:Design Value Awards.

The Awards honor teams that have delivered significant value through design or design management practices.

The value can be expressed as positive financial gains, social impact, environmental stewardship or organizational culture change.

The dmi:Design Value Awards are distinctive in that they recognize the value of design and design management as a strategic asset: a means to drive innovation, creativity, culture change, agility and revenue. Global organizations of any size will be considered, as each have their own unique set of challenges.

A digital poster must be created in both a horizontal and vertical formats. Combined file size should be no larger than 25MB.

There is an entry fee for members of Design Management Institute and non-members. In addition, a 200 USD late fee applies to applications submitted after July 13 and before July 19.

Eligibility

Open worldwide to consultants, government agencies, non-profit organizations, educators and corporations of any size.

Prize

There will be levels of awards: 1st, 2nd and 3rd prize, and Honorable Mention. At least one person from every organization must be present at the Awards Gala to receive the Award.

Winners of the dmi:Design Value Awards will be recognized at the dmi: Design Leadership Conference in Boston September 25 - 27 and published in the dmi:Review.
