Category: Photography

Deadline: March 31, 2025

Website: graphiccompetitions.com

The EuroNatur Photo Competition 2025 is an event that celebrates the breathtaking natural beauty of Europe. Now in its 32nd year, this competition serves as a platform for photographers, both amateur and professional, to showcase their talent by capturing stunning images of Europe's flora, fauna, and landscapes. By encouraging participants to explore and document the continent's rich biodiversity, EuroNatur aims to raise awareness about the need to preserve Europe's unique natural heritage for future generations.

The competition invites entries that highlight the extraordinary diversity of European wildlife and ecosystems. From majestic mountain ranges and serene rivers to intricate macro shots of plants and animals, the competition seeks to capture the essence of Europe's natural wonders. Photographers are encouraged to submit images that tell compelling visual stories, demonstrating the interdependence of species and ecosystems in maintaining environmental balance. This emphasis on storytelling not only enhances the artistic value of the submissions but also underscores critical conservation themes.

Participation in the EuroNatur Photo Competition is entirely free, ensuring accessibility for photographers from all walks of life. The competition's broad appeal and commitment to inclusivity have made it one of the most anticipated events in the nature photography calendar. With generous cash prizes, wide recognition, and the opportunity to feature in EuroNatur's renowned European Treasures of Nature wall calendar, the contest is a golden opportunity for photographers to gain international acclaim while contributing to environmental awareness and advocacy.

There is no entry fee.
