

Humanity Cartoons Competition 2025

Category: Illustration

Deadline: December 31, 2025

Website: graphiccompetitions.com

The Humanity Cartoons Competition 2025 is an international cartoon contest dedicated to promoting awareness, dialogue, and critical thought around the theme "Racism – One Race: Human." It encourages artists to use the power of visual storytelling to expose discrimination, challenge racial stereotypes, and highlight the shared dignity of all people. The competition positions itself as a global platform for socially engaged cartoonists who wish to address racism through creativity, satire, and artistic expression.

The competition aims to attract both emerging and established artists who want to contribute to a meaningful cultural conversation. By inviting participants from around the world, it fosters a diverse range of perspectives on racism, human rights, and equality. Submissions are expected to communicate strong messages through compelling visuals, allowing audiences to reflect on the social, political, and cultural impact of racism while recognizing the unifying idea that humanity belongs to a single race.

In addition to raising awareness, the Humanity Cartoons Competition 2025 seeks to elevate the role of ethical and socially conscious cartooning in contemporary media. It emphasizes the importance of artistic responsibility, encouraging creators to blend creativity with social commentary in a way that sparks public engagement. Through its global reach, the competition aspires to inspire meaningful dialogue, promote inclusion, and contribute to a wider movement for justice, empathy, and solidarity.

There is no entry fee.

Eligibility

Open worldwide to anyone aged 16 or over.

Prize

Cash awards include First Prize of €1,250, Second Prize of €1,000, Third Prize of €750, a Jury Special Award of €500 and three Honorable Mentions at €750 total.
